CHURCH OF IRELAND.

COUNTY CORK FARMERS' GRIEVANCES.

DEPUTATION TO SIR T. W. RUSSELL.

The War Losses Commission sat yesterday in London to consider the application of the Great Southern and Western Railway Company for compensation for damage done by the Great Southern and Western Railway Company, all of Ireland, to the agricultural and depopulated state of the divinity and the surrounding grounds which supplied the church's tithe.

Rev. J. T. McMillen, Deputative Commissioner to the Church Missionary Society, has been invited to speak on behalf of the Society.

Mr. O'Brien, Mr. T. W. Russell, Mr. James B. Bunting, solicitor, and Mr. J. P. Jameson, M.P., were present.

The Solicitor-General contended that this rail company had not been obstructed in carrying out its work of repairing the railway.

Mr. McMillen's work extends over all the Southern dioceses.

The Board of Nomination will meet at the Protestant Hall, Cork, on Saturday, October 11th, for the appointment of an incumbent in succession to the Rev. Charles R. Rainford.

ROYAL HOSPITAL KILMAINHAM.

We are informed that the holding of Divine Service at the Royal Hospital Kilmainham, will be resumed on Sunday, Rev. J. H. Aston, who was appointed Chaplain to Rev. Chas. W. T. Hartman.
